

YORKSHIRE SCULPTURE INTERNATIONAL

YORKSHIRE SCULPTURE INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM SCHEDULE

Friday 20 September 2019

Rose Bowl Lecture Theatre, Leeds Beckett University

Portland Crescent, Leeds, LS1 3HB

Refreshments and lunch provided

General Admission: £40

Concession (students and unwaged): £15

Booking essential at

<https://yorkshire-sculpture.org/events/yorkshire-sculpture-international-symposium/>

9:30 Registration

10:00 - 10:20 Welcome

Professor Simon Morris

Director of Research, Leeds School of Arts,
Leeds Beckett University

Julia McKinlay

Yorkshire Sculpture International PhD Researcher,
Leeds Beckett University

10:20 - 13:00 Morning Session: Sculpture Production

10:20 - 10:40 Rungwe Kingdon

Co-Founder and Director of Pangolin Editions, Gloucestershire
Rungwe Kingdon will speak about casting sculptures for world renowned international artists including 'Receiver' by Huma
Bhabha for Yorkshire Sculpture International 2019.

10:40 - 11:00 Rana Begum

Artist

Rana Begum will discuss her large-scale and ambitious sculptures and public realm commissions that explore geometry, form, light and colour through different materials, and reflect on her experience of selecting for Bloomberg New Contemporaries 2019.

11:00 - 11:30 Refreshments in Rose Bowl Foyer

- 11:30 - 11:50 Samuel Leuenberger
Director and Curator of SALTS, Birsfelden and Curator of Art Basel's Parcours programme
Leuenberger will speak about curating public realm sculptures and installations for Art Basel Parcours, and how early career artists are supported at SALTS.
- 11:50 - 12:10 Simeon Barclay
Artist
Barclay will speak about working as an artist, particularly his experience of working in Yorkshire, his collaborations with suppliers and fabricators and how he develops his large-scale mixed media sculptural works.
- 12:10 - 13:00 Discussion and questions with all four morning speakers
Moderated by Jane Bhoyroo
Producer, Yorkshire Sculpture International
- 13:00 - 14:00 Lunch in Rose Bowl Foyer
- 14:00 - 15:45 Afternoon Session: Sculpture's Future
- 14:00 - 14:20 Lucy Tomlins
Director of Pangaea Sculptors' Centre (PSC) and artist
Tomlins will discuss how PSC supports artists of all stages in their careers to further their sculptural practice by helping with access to equipment, facilities and expertise.
- 14:20 - 14:40 Henry Ward
Creative Director of Freelands Foundation, artist, writer and educator
Ward will speak about his work at Freelands Foundation working with artists, young people and teachers.
- 14:40 - 14:55 Break
- 14:55 - 15:15 Speaker TBC
- 15:15 - 15:50 Discussion and questions with all afternoon speakers.
Moderated by Meghan Goodeve,
Engagement Curator, Yorkshire Sculpture International
- 15:50 - 16:00 Closing remarks
Godfrey Worsdale
Director, Henry Moore Foundation

SPECIAL EVENTS ON THURSDAY 19 SEPTEMBER
FOR SYMPOSIUM DELEGATES

COACH TOUR OF YORKSHIRE SCULPTURE INTERNATIONAL

11:00 - 17:30

£12 per person, booking essential at

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/yorkshire-sculpture-international-symposium-tickets-58636779185>

Join Abi Mitchell, Project Coordinator of Yorkshire Sculpture International at Leeds Art Gallery and be taken around all the exhibitions in the festival. During the day you will travel to Henry Moore Institute, The Hepworth Wakefield, Yorkshire Sculpture Park, plus outdoor sculpture in Leeds and Wakefield

ARTIST BOOK LAUNCH

17:30 - 19:30

Henry Moore Institute

Free and open to all, no booking required

Join us to celebrate the launch of two new artists' books by Jo Hamill and Julia McKinlay, published by Yorkshire Sculpture International in partnership with Leeds Beckett University. Speeches at 18:00.

More information

<https://yorkshire-sculpture.org/events/artist-book-launch/>